4. Use and Protection.

4.1 The Receiving Party will use Confidential Information solely for the Purpose and will protect it using at least the degree of care it uses to protect its own information of a similar nature, and in no event less than reasonable care.

4.2 The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information only to its directors, officers, employees, contractors and professional advisers who need to know it for the Purpose ("Representatives") and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those in this Agreement. Each party is responsible for any breach of this Agreement by its Representatives.

9. Remedies.

9.1 Each party acknowledges that a breach of this Agreement may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy, and that the non-breaching party may seek injunctive relief in addition to any other remedy available to it.
